

Janmashtami Celebration

BVB Vidyashram, K M Mushi Marg, premises once again vibrated with Devkinandan's birth celebration - Janmashtami on August 17, 2019.

The propitiousness of the day was marked with the presence of the Members of Management Committee, dignitaries, parents and Staff Members who came together and rejoiced the occasion with great enthusiasm.

The celebration commenced with the mellifluous Bhajan“ Hari sunder nand mukund...” sung by budding singers of the Primary Wing. The presentation not only drew instant attention but also ignited the spiritual aura of the place. This was further enhanced by the Bhajan “Sub mil mangal gaye...” presented by Senior Wing students.

Dressed in the attire of Krishna, young gowalas and gopikas of the Balwadi made the audience smile with admiration. Dancing on the beats of melodious Bhajan“ Gokul ki galiyo me...” the young dancers depicted some of the most mesmerizing episodes of Krishna's life. The heart throbbing performance of the Primary students on the song “Aaye hai dekho...” made the audience tap their feet along with the beats. The sacred love and devotion for Krishna was further unfolded by the enchanting classical dance presentation of the senior students on the song “Kanha re...”

The drama “Krishna Ka Awahan” brought forth the silent plea of Nature and rang the warning bells alerting the mankind of the hazardous consequences of their thoughtless deeds that pollute the rivers and pain the mother earth.

The celebration came to its zenith with Krishna’s Arti and distribution of Prasad.

