

34th Annual Day Celebration

Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan Vidyashram, K.M. Munshi Marg, Jaipur celebrated its 34th Annual Day on Saturday, December 01, 2018 in the Maharana Pratap Auditorium with great zest and vibrancy.

Smt. Preeti Jain (IPS) Superintendent, Anti Child Trafficking, Jaipur, Rajasthan presided over the function as the Chief Guest.

Shri V.C. Surana, Chairman, Bhavan's Jaipur Kendra along with all the members of the School Management Committee graced the occasion.

The Chief Guest and all the dignitaries were escorted to the Auditorium amidst Vedic chanting. Sarvadharm Prayer and Ram Stuti presented by the students marked an auspicious beginning to the function.

The Principal Smt. Pratima Sharma extended a warm welcome to all the dignitaries, guests and parents. She also presented the Annual Report to apprise the audience of the activities and the achievements of the students who crowned laurels to the school. This was followed by the Prize Distribution Ceremony wherein the Chief Guest awarded the shining stars of the school.

Shri V.C. Surana addressed the gathering and encouraged the students to aspire for a brighter future for self and society.

A spectacular cultural programme "Sisakta Bachpan" show-cased by the young talents not only held the audience in awe but also drew the attention towards the greatest menace of the society against the children. Through the ballet, evils against the children such as child labour, child trafficking, child abuse etc. prevailing in the present society were articulated. The need of the hour to unite as one in order to save the future of the country was brought forth.

The programme concluded with the National Anthem.
