

Basant Panchmi was celebrated in the school with religious fervor. The day began with a Havan in Ma Saraswati's temple. Chanting of mantras and bhajans created a religious aura in the beautifully decorated temple. Prayers and yellow flowers were offered to the Goddess of knowledge seeking her divine blessings, to diminish the prevailing negativity. Prasad was distributed among the staff and students.

